

Karl Bimshas Consulting's most popular leadership workshop:

Find Direction in Your Life No Matter How Lost You Feel

Start with Self-Leadership

Not getting the results you planned and feeling exhausted with nothing to show for it?

It's because your personal compass is not aligned with your organization's goals.

If you're confident you already know your personal vision, mission, and values, this isn't for you. This is for leaders who aren't sure, or have been too busy to think about it.

You will

- ▶ Draft a "sensible" vision
- ▶ Uncover your personal mission
- ▶ Validate your values
- ▶ Honor your downtime

Register Before February 27th : $79
After: $97

What Participants Have Said

"Helped put things into perspective. Thank you!"

"I really liked the idea of how to come up with a personal statement by pulling all of our values and strengths. Definitely something I am going to continue to work on."

"This was really helpful and thought-provoking."

"I walked away with a stronger sense of purpose."
