

Leadership Development Gameboard

30 Attributes to manage better and lead well.

To Play: Pick the day of the week and roll a die, or randomly select a square and reflect on how you demonstrate that behavior. Play individually or with others for greater accountability. Revisit each attribute regularly to improve your leadership awareness.

	M	T	W	T	F
1	How are you approachable and kind to others?	How do you make decisions?	How do you take initiative?	How do you communicate expectations?	How do you inspire creativity?
2	How are you accountable for your actions?	How do you set the example?	How do you measure performance?	How do you reward the efforts of others?	How do you give continuous feedback?
3	How do you position team members where they can win?	How are you deeply curious?	How do you problem solve?	How do you possess a positive attitude?	How do you value relationships?
4	How do you possess courage?	How do you serve those you lead?	How do you frequently communicate?	How do you demonstrate empathy?	How are you flexible as conditions change?
5	How do you embrace and manage change?	How do you value customers and end users?	How do you teach others?	How do you enjoy your role?	How do you share a vision?
6	How do you behave ethically?	How are you honest?	How do you give credit and take the blame?	How are you focused on a goal?	How do you create and or nurture a culture?